

and east of Cardiac Ridge.

The buried avalanche cord is a rather disquieting circumstance of the accident. An avalanche cord is of absolutely no use if it is buried beneath the avalanche debris. Again, this incident and that in No. 67-9 are enough to cast serious doubt on the dependability of avalanche cords.